

Diesel is the extra-ordinary fashion brand rooted in denim mastery. Is a truly worldwide organization, a tribe where extra-ordinary people work together to enable business success and to realize their full potential, passion and competencies.

Junior Legal Counsel

At Diesel Headquarters located in Breganze (Italy), we are looking for an experienced Junior Legal Counsel to join our Legal Department. The role will be responsible for drafting, negotiating and reviewing Marketing, Communications and a broad range of Commercial contracts in order to lead matters involving commercial and Intellectual Property Rights.

The role's main responsibilities are:

- Draft and review, in compliance with Diesel Spa templates, of legal contracts, letters of agreement, and other documents related to Diesel Spa Functions' matters to protect the organization's interests.
- Maintain databases ensuring accurate recording of legal contracts, letters of agreement, and other documents.
- Advise Diesel Spa Corporate Functions on all legal matters and the potential impact of current and future laws and regulations on the organization.

Main interfaces:

You will report to the Head of Legal department and work closely with:

- Diesel Spa Legal Team
- OTB Legal Team
- External legal counsels

What requirements you need to have:

- Master Degree in Law.
- A minimum of 2/3 year experience focused on IP within a global brand or a legal firm.
- Excellent knowledge of the English language complete the profile we are looking for. Other language skills would be preferred.
- The profile must have determination to achieve the objectives, initiative, ability to problem solving and teamwork.

Location: Breganze (VI)

If interested, you can apply sending your C.V. to: giorgia_pozza@diesel.com indicating in the subject: Rif. Junior Legal Counsel